Hi [REDACTED],

That is not a problem at all, I can send those reports solely to Linda, and won't include anyone else in it.

I will start doing so tomorrow morning.

Kind regards,

Subject: RACP Elections: Request for Data

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for sending the data to me on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays on the total number of votes cast in each of the five ballots. We are reading that report to gauge the turnout of voters. Could you please continue to do so until the end of College elections?

I now have an additional new request.

For each of the five ballots underway, our CEO would like to know the number of votes cast for each candidate. She would like this report each Friday and Monday morning. The report should be emailed to linda.smith@racp.edu.au only. Please do not send the report or copy the email to any other person at RACP.

Would you be able to arrange and produce this report for Linda please? Please feel free to call me if you would like to discuss and if you have any queries or need any clarification regarding the above.

Thanks,
